1. Purpose:

- A. To provide guidance and regulations concerning Ribbons available for recognizing individuals and units in the Naval Service.
- B. Commands publishing specific award instructions must comply with the guidance established herein.

2. Authority to Establish Ribbons.

- A. Ribbons may be established through laws passed by the Fleet Admiral (FADM) or the Chief of Naval Operations (CNO).
- B. All new Ribbons require coordination and concurrence from the Commanding Officer Aground Group and the Director of Web Services who provide coordination to ensure all decorations, Ribbons, and service ribbons are developed in accordance with existing regulations and do not duplicate any previously authorized designs.

3. Authority to Approve Ribbons.

- A. In general FADM and CNO-VN retain awarding authority for all Ribbons under their purview. However, they have delegated authority to approve the Legion of Merit and below, in certain situations. Appendix A to this chapter provides a listing of those delegations. Delegation of authority not specified requires direction in writing from FADM and CNO.

4. Policy Considerations.

- A. Ribbons are important symbols of public recognition for rewarding heroism or valor, exceptionally meritorious service, or outstanding achievement and other acts or services which are above and beyond what is normally expected, and which distinguish an individual or unit among those performing similar acts or services.
- B. Ribbons are intended to recognize SeaWolves Virtual Navy (SVN) Officers who demonstrate exceptional valor, heroism, or meritorious service. An award should only be recommended in cases where the circumstances clearly merit special recognition of the actions or service.
- C. Duplication of Ribbons. Only one award will be made for the same act, achievement, or period of meritorious service for any individual or unit. However, an award for individual valor, heroism, or specific achievement within a longer period of meritorious service will not be considered duplication, provided the Summary of Action and citation for the meritorious service award do not cite any of the actions for which the heroic or specific achievement award was given. In addition, the fact that a unit receives a unit award in no way limits the awarding of personal decorations to deserving individuals of that unit for the same period.

July 1, 2011	Sea Wolves Virtual Navy Awards Manual		Pg. 5 of 21
	Office of Administration and Operations	Rev: 3

D. SVN personnel are not authorized to wear other Services' Ribbons.

5. Personnel Eligible.

A. The terms "Naval Service and "serving in any capacity with the SVN," as used in this instruction include service in the SVN Fleet Force, SVN Ashore Group and SVN Headquarters.

6. Precedence of Ribbons.

7. SVN RIBBONS PROCEDURE:

A. DEFINITION.

A military decoration is an award bestowed on an individual for a specific act or acts of gallantry or meritorious service.

B. POLICY CONSIDERATIONS

1) Initiation of Recommendation.

A recommendation for a personal award may be submitted by any commissioned officer senior, in grade or billet, to the individual being recommended, who has knowledge of any act, achievement, or service that may warrant such award. A recommendation originated by other than the commanding officer of the individual concerned must be forwarded to the commanding officer for endorsement. If an officer is not assigned, the senior enlisted member may forward documentation to the first officer in the chain of command for consideration of the award of a personal decoration.

2) Timeliness.

Timely recommendations are essential to a successful Ribbons program. A recommendation should be submitted as soon as possible following the act, achievement, or service upon which it is based. However, due consideration must be given to security requirements, the time required to properly investigate the event, validation of facts, and processing. All recommendations must be appropriately justified and sufficiently detailed to allow proper evaluation and decision.

Award recommendations should be submitted to arrive at the final awarding authority for adjudication at least five (5) days prior to the desired presentation date, to allow sufficient time for administrative processing. For Ribbons requiring review by more levels in the chain of command, additional time should be allowed.

3) Ribbons for Multiple Individuals for the Same Incident or Action.

In situations where multiple personal Ribbons are recommended for the same incident or action, - all of the recommendations shall be forwarded together to the highest awarding authority (such as CNO, VCNO, or DCNO) for consideration, even if only one of the recommendations would normally require that level of approval.

4) Reconsideration of an Award Previously Considered.

Recommendations for Ribbons previously considered by an awarding authority may be reconsidered only upon the presentation of new and relevant material evidence that was not available at the time the original recommendation was considered.

July 1, 2011	Sea Wolves Virtual Navy Awards Manual		Pg. 10 of 21
	Office of Administration and Operations	Rev: 3

5) Subsequent Awards.

A member throughout their career will have the opportunity to earn a previously awarded ribbon many times. Award stars are issued in two degrees, gold and silver, with silver considered the higher degree as is the tradition in the U.S. military. An award star is issued in lieu of multiple awards of the same decoration with the first award star issued for the second award of the decoration. For instance, if a service member received three Achievement Medals, their service record would reflect the Achievement Medal with two gold award stars. Silver award stars are issued in lieu of five gold, meaning that a silver star is provided for the 6th, 11th, 16th and so on, for subsequent awards of a decoration. There are no higher degrees of award stars authorized in lieu of five silver award stars.

It is about giving for the team, not even thinking about own score or record. To be the first to step in and do what has to be done, in war time, in peace time, no matter what the issue.
